

Vernal Pools

Z L E W D E T S E R O F
B P T V O L U N T E E R
Y M A L T O G D R Y L E
J I G O S R D G G B T N
E R I O T J E F R A I N
F H L P T R F A R X T N
F S B L E C M G S O M Y
E Y O A K K I F L U G X
R R L N C M R A P W R R
S I T R U V C V O M P E
O A R E L K P N H L A T
N F Y V W L S J N D G L

Clues:

- A unique crustacea that is found in vernal pools
- Vernal pools are found in ___ wetlands
- A salamander that relies on vernal pools
- Vernal pools currently ___ federal protection as wetlands
- LWC's amphibian monitoring program
- An area of Loudoun with amazing vernal pools
- Salamanders ___ up to 1/4 mile to get to the vernal pools where they were born to mate
- The general term used for species that are indicators of vernal pools
- Another source of water for vernal pools
- A source of water that fills vernal pools
- If we find a vernal pool we should ___ it
- Shallow ponds or pools that dry out by summer
- How you can help protect our remaining vernal pools

Vernal Pools

